Lyceum Educational Principles

1. Creating a dignified, dedicated citizen who preserves national, religious and cultural values and the heritage of their motherland.
2. Creating a citizen with human values who accepts and appreciates religious and racial diversity, national unity and cohesion, and integration.
3. Creating an adaptable, contented, balanced, and democratic citizen.
4. Creating intellectuals, entrepreneurs, leaders and a labour force rich in knowledge, skills, attitudes and the ability to contribute to the individual and national economic development effectively and efficiently, through innovation and scientific thinking.
5. Creating great personalities in different fields who generate new inventions through the advancement and opening out of their abilities.
6. Nourishing modern and science based knowledge needed to get a competitive position in a new and free global society.
