WORDS OF WISDOM

FROM OUR FOUNDER,
DR. MOHAN LAL GRERO

Work out what is important in your life - and make sure that everything that you do contributes towards it. Is watching TV more important to you than studying?

Of course it's not more important. Yet the average child probably watches about two hours of TV every day. How much time a YEAR do you devote to making more of yourself? What do you think would happen if you decided to devote just one of those hours to working on how you can make more of your life? Think of what you could achieve in those extra 15 DAYS of focusing on YOU every year!

Take time to educate yourself about YOU. We are far too busy studying other people, talking about their faults, when the only real good we can do for ourselves and for those around us is to look inward at ourselves. If we are really honest with ourselves, we will discover many things about us that need improving. Read all you can read about how you can improve yourself - then actually DO it. Set aside just a small part of your 'free-time' to working out what you want - find out how to get there - then just GO FOR IT!

The only thing you would have wasted would have been that TV program you only watched because it was on. Don't be lazy. Make something out of your life - after all... it's the only one you've got.
