Vesak Bakthi Gee

The Vesak Bakthi Gee Programme was held on Thursday 21st May 2015 at 6.00p.m. in the School Hall. The Choirs of Grades 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, the Senior Choir and the Staff Choir presented items, while students from the upper school presented a dance and an act called "Budun Wadinawa" and "Abinikmana". We thank all parents who were present on that day. The scouts and the Board of Prefects organized an ice cream dansala.

Parental Expectations and Childhood Performance

The one childhood your child has should be one which they can joyously recall, and celebrate through life. Did you have such a childhood? Yes, or no, all parents must make dedicated efforts to give this lifetime gift to their children. They need happy experience, love, appreciation and attention to discover the world successfully, to grow into good citizens.

A child is not a "small adult". Children cannot cope with constant pressure to perform at the level of adult expectations of the skills, abilities and the knowledge of Primary School children are not varied, or expansive. Obtaining one hundred percent marks at a test is an impossible task for the average child. If your children did not score as many marks as you did in school, or as you wished, motivate them with love and affection, not by repeatedly asking them to 'do better'. It is not a concept children in Primary Grades understand.

Parents must become a wholesome part of their children's lives: motivate them, work with them, play with them, admire their achievements (remember how you clapped and encouraged when the child took the first few steps without help?), hold their hand, walk with them, let them know you are there. Fear, threat, dejection, rejection, frustration, compulsion, absence of love and consideration scar children. Help your child to learn better by 'not pushing' them. Your duty and responsibility is to endow them with a joyous, memorable childhood. Try You can.
